DESCRIPTION

New OLED panel modules are available with the introduction of new series "A" monitors. (See Table 1.)

NOTE:

- Former and new OLED modules are compatible.
- Use the former OLED module until current stock is depleted, then use the new OLED module.
- When the new OLED module for series "A" monitors is used in conventional monitors, the file that stores model information in the module must be rewritten. For details, refer to the revised version of the service manual.
