 PROMOTION: FIVE PIECE PRICING

Please refer to the highlighted prices below for the new and reduced prices on the professional plasmas and LCD models.

Due to some changes we had to make in our system, the professional plasmas and LCD models are no longer downloadable from SNAP. We apologize for this inconvenience and hope to see a fix to it as soon as possible.

While we are trying to resolve this issue, we will be providing you this price sheet bulletin whenever there is any change in pricing. This summary will also include key programs with bulletin numbers. However, please refer to those program bulletins for detailed terms and conditions including the period of the program. We hope that you find this new price sheet bulletin helpful.
